

Henry Sweet Society for the History of Linguistic Ideas

Annual Colloquium, 30 August to 1 September 2012

Colloquium theme: The History of Grammar Writing

Aarhus University

The 2012 Colloquium of the Henry Sweet Society for the History of Linguistic Ideas will take place at Aarhus University, from Thursday 30th August through to Saturday 1st September 2012. For further information about the society see the HSS website <http://www.henrysweet.org>. Information on accommodation and travel, as well as updates on the colloquium, will be posted there in due course.

As usual, contributions on any aspect of the history of linguistics are welcome, as are ideas for panel discussions or thematic sessions, which should be submitted in the same way as ordinary papers (see below). Papers dealing with the Colloquium theme, The History of Grammar Writing, are especially welcome.

Call for papers

Papers of 30 minutes including discussion time are invited on the colloquium theme or any other aspect of the history of linguistic ideas. Please send an email to both organizers (at the addresses below) with an attachment (in Word or Wordperfect) giving the title, type of contribution, and an abstract (max. 250 words); your name should not appear in the attachment. In the body of the email please indicate your full contact address and the title of your paper, discussion or thematic session. The deadline for submissions is 30th March 2012.

Organisers: Julie Hansen (linjha@hum.au.dk)

William B. McGregor (linwmg@hum.au.dk)

Notification of acceptance will be made by 29th April 2012.
